

Jacques Delors Institute Berlin; Bertelsmann Stiftung (Hrsg.)
Pola Schneemelcher, Jörg Haas

Rules enforcement in the EU: “Conditionality” to the rescue?

2019, 14 Seiten (PDF)

kostenlos

 Download

Budget conditionality has become a key issue in the ongoing debate on the next multiannual financial framework. Some regard it as the EU's silver bullet against member states that refuse to implement EU values, rules and decisions. Others fear excessive interference in national competences. In this policy paper, Jörg Haas and Pola Schneemelcher examine what conditionality means in the EU context and whether it really improves the enforceability of EU rules and values.

Projekt

- Repair and Prepare: Strengthening Europe

ANSPRECHPARTNER - INHALT

Dr. Katharina Gnath

