The User's Guide "Attention, Kids' Perspectives! Improving ECEC together with children" gives you information on how to use the poster "Attention, Kids' Perspectives! Improving ECEC together with children" and background information on the research and practice-development project "Children as Actors for Improving the Quality of ECEC Centers ". The project was commissioned by the Bertelsmann Foundation and implemented by the Institute for Democratic Development and Social Integration.

If you order the User's Guide, you will also automatically receive the Poster.
