

Bertelsmann Stiftung (ed.)

Freedom, Equality, Solidarity

Thoughts on Europe's Future - from Germany, France and Poland

1. edition 2014, 136 pp (E-Book / PDF)

ISBN 978-3-86793-616-3

16,99 €

 abstract

order now (Format: PDF)

Although the principles of democracy are in abstract stable concepts, every generation must consider anew how best to apply them in society. What do the principles of freedom, equality and solidarity mean to today's Germans, French and Poles?

Twelve authors and interview partners from Germany, France and Poland, including Marianne Birthler, André Glucksmann and Adam Krzemiński, provide moving responses to important questions about a common European future.

More Details

- abstract

Project

- Strengthening and Connecting Europe

CONTACT - CONTENT

Gabriele Schöler

CONTACT - PUBLISHER

Sabine Reimann