

Democracy R & D
“Innovating Deliberative Democracy – Inclusion, Impact and Institutionalization!”
Berlin, September 28-30, 2022

Stream 3. Democracy in times of crisis

Workshop 03:

“Wartime Democracy:
what’s going on with democracy & how to cope with war?
Experience of Ukraine”

Key questions:

- What risks did democracy face during the war?
- How did the war affect public support for democracy and political process in Ukraine?
- How can citizens actually participate in the every-day wartime politics in Ukraine?
- How to keep democracy at the ‘edge of razor’ between risks of failure in chaotic populism OR authoritarianism during/after the war?

Key speakers:

Prof. Viktor Stepanenko - Institute of Sociology at the Ukraine National Academy of Sciences (Kyiv, Ukraine)

Prof. Andrii Gorbachyk – T.Shevchenko National University of Kyiv (Ukraine)

Prof. Oleksandr Fisun – V.Karazin National University of Kharkiv (Ukraine)

Dr. Uliana Movchan – Tuebingen University (The Netherlands)

Dr. Julia Bidenko - V.Karazin National University of Kharkiv (Ukraine)

Prof. Olga Kutsenko - T.Shevchenko National University of Kyiv & Technical University of Berlin

Українець
- це діагноз!

Volunteers clean up house rubble after the Russia's bombardment, near Chernihiv, August 2022.

Volunteer save invalided dogs, Irpin, March 2022.

After the bombing of maternity hospital, Mariupol, April 2022.

Refugees are fleeing from Russia's bombarding, Borodianka, March 2022